1. Two weeks ago Russia brought war back to Europe. Russia’s unprovoked and unjustified military aggression against Ukraine grossly violates international law and the principles of the UN Charter and undermines European and global security and stability. It is inflicting unspeakable suffering on the Ukrainian population. Russia, and its accomplice Belarus, bear full responsibility for this war of aggression and those responsible will be held to account for their crimes, including for indiscriminately targeting civilians and civilian objects. In this respect we welcome the decision of the prosecutor of the International Criminal Court to open an investigation. We call for the safety and security of Ukraine’s nuclear facilities to be ensured immediately with the assistance of the International Atomic Energy Agency. We demand that Russia ceases its military action and withdraws all forces and military equipment from the entire territory of Ukraine immediately and unconditionally, and fully respects Ukraine’s territorial integrity, sovereignty and independence within its internationally recognised borders.
2. We commend the people of Ukraine for their courage in defending their country and our shared values of freedom and democracy. We will not leave them alone. The EU and its Member States will continue to provide coordinated political, financial, material and humanitarian support. We are committed to provide support for the reconstruction of a democratic Ukraine once the Russian onslaught has ceased. We are determined to increase even further our pressure on Russia and Belarus. We have adopted significant sanctions and remain ready to move quickly with further sanctions.
3. Countless people are fleeing the war in Ukraine. We offer temporary protection to all war refugees from Ukraine. We commend European countries, notably at the borders with Ukraine, for showing immense solidarity in hosting Ukrainian war refugees. The EU and its Member States will continue to show solidarity and provide humanitarian, medical and financial support to all refugees and the countries hosting them. We call for funds to be made available without delay through a swift adoption of the proposal on Cohesion’s Action for Refugees in Europe (CARE) and through ReactEU. We call on Russia to fully abide by its obligations under international humanitarian law. It must ensure safe and unhindered humanitarian access to the victims and internally displaced persons in Ukraine, and allow safe passage for those civilians who want to leave.
4. The European Council acknowledged the European aspirations and the European choice of Ukraine, as stated in the Association Agreement. On 28 February 2022, exercising the right of Ukraine to choose its own destiny, the President of Ukraine submitted the application of Ukraine to become a member of the European Union. The Council has acted swiftly and invited the Commission to submit its opinion on this application in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Treaties. Pending this and without delay, we will further strengthen our bonds and deepen our partnership to support Ukraine in pursuing its European path. Ukraine belongs to our European family.

5. The Council has invited the Commission to submit its opinions on the applications of the Republic of Moldova and Georgia.

Inclusive and accountable politicsEnsuring effective COVID-19 legislation

Introduction
WFD is currently working to ensure governance in Ukraine is inclusive of all groups through its Inclusive and Accountable Politics programme, as well as supporting the Verkhovna Rada (parliament) to ensure effective legislation.

<h2>Statement on the illegal invasion of Ukraine</h2>

28 February 2022: The illegal invasion of Ukraine is devastating, and the consequences will be far reaching. For decades, Ukraine has been on a journey strengthening its democracy for the good of its people and WFD has been proud to have provided support along this road. This unprovoked attack on Ukraine is also an attack on our values of democracy and freedom. The fight to defend democracies around the world is getting harder and has never been more urgent.

We have joined other members of the Global Democracy Coalition in signing a statement that supports Ukraine and condemns this invasion. Autocratic repression and violence will never lead humanity to peace and security. The world needs more, better, and stronger democracies to face the grave challenges of our time, not more autocracy and bloodshed.

Following a series of demonstrations in late 2013, an uprising and early elections in 2014 put Ukraine on the path away from Russia’s orbit and towards a European future – a path that requires major social, economic and political reforms.

Since WFD first worked in Ukraine in 1992, it has developed an excellent understanding of the Ukrainian political context and established strong working relationships with officials, committees and parliamentarians in the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine (VRU). Our counterparts value and respect WFD’s expertise and insight, and we work closely with them to help foster more inclusive and account.

By making the parliament more accountable to Ukranian citizens, WFD helps ensure there is robust scrutiny of government policy and performance. This accountability is boosted by helping the parliament to set up better internal oversight practices, enhancing the independent budget committee’s ability to provide greater oversight over how public funds are spent and ensuring that new financial and economic legislation is introduced in line with international best practice.

WFD is paving the way to support the parliament in introducing new mechanisms to review laws to ensure they are working as intended (a practice known as post-legislative scrutiny). Post-legislative scrutiny is the practice of assessing the effectiveness and impact of laws. WFD works with many different sections of the parliament and engage staff of relevant committees and the parliament’s lawyers to support introducing these new ways of working.

Gender equality is mainstreamed across all of our activities, with a particular focus on ensuring women, people with disabilities and other vulnerable groups have greater and equal access to formal and informal ways to participate in politics. To help achieve this aim, the programme will implement a series of workshops and training, with a particular focus on how public spending can lead to a gender pay gap if funds are not appropriately allocated.

The programme is funded by FCDO and will run until March 2022.

Ensuring effective COVID-19 legislation

Ukraine required the rapid introduction of new emergency legislation and regulation to respond to the COVID-19 pandemic. Many new laws have been enacted in first months of the pandemic spread in different areas. Due to the necessary speed of the legislative process, there was not much time to scrutinise and analyse draft laws. This means there is a risk that the laws may not do what legislators intended them to do. What is more, Government decisions of the use of public funds related to COVID-19 have been challenged.

WFD is supporting members of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine (VRU) to enhance its post-legislative scrutiny practices. Post-legislative scrutiny is the practice of assessing the effectiveness and impact of laws. With WFD support, the VRU will review and assess COVID-19 emergency legislation, make recommendations for improvements, and document lessons learned to help them design better policies and laws in future emergencies.

<h3>COVID-19 - Preventative measures and restrictions</h3> COVID-19 preventative measures and restrictions are still in effect in some destinations. These could include: curfews, movement restrictions, or lockdowns mandatory mask use required proof of vaccination or a COVID-19 test result to access public and private services and spaces Before travelling, verify if specific restrictions or requirements are still in effect. Foreign Representatives in Canada <h3>Crime</h3><h4>Petty crime</h4>
Pay particular attention at train and bus stations, tourist sites and crowded areas
Ensure that your personal belongings, including your passport and other travel documents, are secure at all times
Avoid showing signs of affluence and carrying large sums of cash
<h4>Overcharging</h4> Some tourists have been victims of overcharging in bars and clubs. Discussions about overcharging may lead to threats of violence by security guards, who may force you to pay. Be particularly vigilant at tourist resorts along the Black Sea, where this practice is most common <h4>Vehicle theft</h4> Vehicle thefts and break-ins occur frequently. Park in a guarded location whenever possible Store your valuables safely out of sight Always be suspicious if someone offers to help you with a flat tire. These individuals may have punctured the tire themselves. They may seize the opportunity to steal your purse or other valuable objects while you’re distracted. <h4>Organized crime</h4> Organized criminal groups are active in casinos and nightclubs. Violent crime may occur, and includes bombings and shootouts between rival gangs. <h4>Fraud</h4> Credit card and ATM fraud occurs. ATMs fitted with fraudulent card readers are common, particularly in Sofia, Burgas and Varna. Be cautious when using debit or credit cards: pay careful attention when your cards are being handled by others use ATMs located in well-lit public areas or inside a bank or business avoid using card readers with an irregular or unusual feature cover the keypad with one hand when entering your PIN check for any unauthorized transactions on your account statements More about overseas fraud <h4>Spiked food and drinks</h4> Never leave food or drinks unattended or in the care of strangers. Be wary of accepting snacks, beverages, gum or cigarettes from new acquaintances. These items may contain drugs that could put you at risk of sexual assault and robbery. <h3>Terrorism</h3> There is a threat of terrorism in Europe. Terrorist attacks have occurred in a number of European cities. There is a potential for other violent incidents. Targets could include: government buildings, including schools places of worship airports and other transportation hubs and networks

public areas such as tourist attractions, restaurants, bars, coffee shops, shopping centres, markets, hotels and other sites frequented by foreigners Always be aware of your surroundings when in public places. Keep in mind, however, that even the most secure locations aren’t completely free of risk. In response to terrorist attacks in other European cities, Bulgarian authorities have strengthened their security measures in all cities, particularly where large crowds gather. <h3>Demonstrations</h3> Demonstrations may occur. Even peaceful demonstrations can turn violent at any time. They can also lead to disruptions to traffic and public transportation. Avoid areas where demonstrations and large gatherings are taking place
Follow the instructions of local authorities
Monitor local media for information on ongoing demonstrations Mass gatherings (large-scale events) <!-- START Road safety --><h3>Road safety</h3> Road conditions and road safety can vary greatly throughout the country. Driving conditions may be hazardous due to aggressive drivers, excessive speeds, poor lighting and a lack of traffic signs and lane markings. Potholes and wandering animals are common on rural roads. Avoid confronting aggressive drivers, as they may be armed Avoid driving after dark outside of major cities
Be especially cautious when driving during winter, as roads may not be plowed or salted <h4>Pedestrians</h4> Be cautious when crossing streets. Drivers don’t always give pedestrians the right of way. <h4>Bribery</h4> Police occasionally solicit bribes. They may delay you if you refuse to pay the bribe, but you’re unlikely to experience additional problems beyond inconvenience. <!-- END Road safety --><h3>Public transportation</h3><h4>Taxis</h4>
Use only licensed taxis with meters
Verify the tariffs on the taxi’s window before entering, as taxi drivers sometime overcharge
At Sofia Airport, visit the taxi booth in the arrivals terminal to obtain a fair rate
<h4>Rail services</h4> Rail services are generally poor. It’s preferable to travel via inter-city buses. <h4>Public transportation systems</h4> Most cities and larger towns have public transportation systems. Inter-city buses are frequent, comfortable and relatively fast. Regular bus service exists between most of Bulgaria’s major cities and towns. Disruptions and delays to public transportation services, including at ferry ports, railway stations and border crossings, may occur.   <h3>Air travel</h3> We do not make assessments on the compliance of foreign domestic airlines with international safety standards. General information about foreign domestic airlines <h3>Stray dogs</h3> Beware of stray dogs, especially those travelling in packs. All the flight-inclusive holidays on this website are financially protected by the ATOL scheme. When you pay you will be supplied with an ATOL Certificate. Please ask for it and check to ensure that everything you booked (flights, hotels and other services) is listed on it. If you do receive an ATOL Certificate but all the parts of your trip are not listed on it, those parts will not be ATOL protected. Some of the flights on this website are also financially protected by the ATOL scheme, but ATOL protection does not apply to all flights. This website will provide you with information on the protection that applies in the case of each flight before you make your booking. If you do not receive an ATOL Certificate then the booking will not be ATOL protected. Please see our booking conditions for information, or for more information about financial protection and the ATOL Certificate go to: www.caa.co.uk. ATOL protection does not apply to the other holiday and travel services listed on this website.

The EU and its international partners are united in condemning Putin's aggression on Ukraine. We will provide support to those seeking shelter and we will help those looking for a safe way home. The EU will continue to offer strong political, financial and humanitarian assistance to Ukraine and impose hard-hitting sanctions against Russia and those complicit in the war. 15 July - The Commission proposed a new package of measures to maintain and strengthen the effectiveness of the EU's six wide-ranging and unprecedented packages of sanctions against Russia. The package will introduce a new import ban on Russian gold, while reinforcing the dual use and advanced technology export controls. It also further aligns the EU sanctions with those of our G7 partners, and reiterates the Commission's determination to protect food security around the globe.

<li class="timeline__list__item"> 22 July The Council decided to impose restrictive measures on an additional 54 individuals and 10 entities in response to the ongoing unjustified and unprovoked Russian military aggression against Ukraine.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 15 July The Commission and the Ukrainian Government signed an agreement associating Ukraine to the EU4Health programme. This agreement will open access for Ukraine to EU funding in the area of health and enable the Ukrainian health system to respond to immediate needs and contribute to long-term recovery.

The new package will introduce a new import ban on Russian gold, while reinforcing the dual use and advanced technology export controls. The Council approved of these measures on 21 July.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 1 July
The Commission proposed a new €1 billion macro-financial assistance (MFA) operation for Ukraine as the first part of the exceptional MFA package of up to €9 billion announced in the Commission’s communication of 18 May 2022 and endorsed by the European Council of 23-24 June 2022.
The Commission adopted a decision enabling Member States to temporarily waive customs duties and VAT on the importation from third countries of food, blankets, tents, electric generators and other life-saving equipment destined for Ukrainians affected by the war. This measure, which was requested by Member States, will apply retroactively from 24 February 2022 and will be in place until 31 December 2022.

<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 28 June The European Network of Transmission System Operators for Electricity announced that electricity trade between Ukraine and the EU will start on 30 June. This development follows the successful emergency synchronisation of the Ukrainian and Moldovan grids with the European Continental Grid in March. This is the next step in integrating the energy systems of these two countries with Europe.

<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 27 June Following a request from Ukraine for medical equipment, protective gear and specialised equipment for public health risks such as chemical, biological, radiological and nuclear threats, the Commission has mobilised its new rescEU emergency reserves.

<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 14 June The Commission presented guidance to EU countries on how to integrate people arriving from Ukraine into the labour market and support their access to training and adult learning. The guidance also features several concrete examples of EU-funded projects supporting labour market integration.

<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 9 June The EU sets up €20 million support for Ukrainian start-ups through European Innovation Council.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 31 May The Commission launched an EU platform for the exchange of information on beneficiaries of temporary protection and adequate protection. <li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 17 April The EU has allocated a further €50 million in humanitarian funding to support the people affected by Russia's war on Ukraine, including €45 million for humanitarian projects in Ukraine and €5 million for Moldova. This brings the EU's total humanitarian aid funding in response to the war to €143 million. This funding is part of the €1 billion support package pledged by the European Commission at the event "Stand Up For Ukraine".
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 9 April The “Stand Up for Ukraine” global pledging event and campaign has raised €9.1 billion for people fleeing the Russian invasion, inside Ukraine and abroad, including €1 billion from the European Commission. On top of that, the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development has announced an additional loan of €1 billion to cover the needs of the people displaced by the invasion.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 8 April The EU agreed on the fifth package of restrictive measures against Russia in response to its brutal aggression against Ukraine and its people. Together with the four previous packages, these sanctions will further contribute to ramping up economic pressure on the Kremlin and cripple its ability to finance its invasion of Ukraine. These measures are broader and sharper, so that they cut even deeper into the Russian economy. They have been coordinated with international partners.

<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 8 April Telecom operators based in the EU and in Ukraine have signed a joint statement on their coordinated efforts to secure and stabilise affordable or free roaming and international calls between the EU and Ukraine. The joint statement aims to establish a more stable framework to help Ukrainians displaced throughout Europe to stay in touch with family and friends back home.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 6 April The Commission published a recommendation on the recognition of academic and professional qualifications for people fleeing Russia's invasion of Ukraine. It will provide Member States with guidance and practical advice to ensure a quick, fair and flexible recognition process.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 5 April President of the Commission, Ursula von der Leyen, announced the fifth round of EU sanctions against Russia. New broader and sharper restrictive measures will target six pillars, cutting deep into the Russian economy and sustaining pressure on the Russian government.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 4 April The EU has set up a Joint Investigation Team with Ukraine to collect evidence and investigate war crimes and crimes against humanity. The EU is ready to reinforce this effort by sending investigation teams on the ground to support the Ukrainian Prosecution Services.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 1 April The Commission adopted a proposal on the conversion of hryvnia banknotes into the currency of host Member States by persons fleeing the war in Ukraine. It aims to promote a coordinated approach to offer those fleeing from Ukraine the same conditions for converting their hryvnia banknotes into local currency independently of the Member State that hosts them.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 28 March At the extraordinary Justice and Home Affairs Council, Vice-President for Promoting our European Way of Life, Margaritis Schinas and Commissioner for Home Affairs, Ylva Johansson, in coordination with the French Presidency of the Council represented by Minister Gérald Darmanin, presented a 10-Point Plan for stronger European coordination on welcoming people fleeing the war against Ukraine.

<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 25 March The European Commission and the Government of Canada announced the launch of a global campaign to raise funding in support of people fleeing the invasion of Ukraine, in partnership with international advocacy organisation Global Citizen.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 23 March The Commission outlined the actions being taken in support of Member States to meet the needs of those fleeing the war against Ukraine. Beyond the immediate support provided in terms of assistance at the border, reception and civil protection, the EU has taken further steps to help Member States ensure beneficiaries can effectively access their right to education, healthcare, accommodation and jobs.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 22 March The Commission launched the ‘European Research Area for Ukraine' portal, a one-stop-shop for information and support services to Ukraine-based researchers and researchers fleeing Ukraine.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 17 March The Commission's ‘Freeze and Seize' Task Force, set up to ensure EU-level coordination to implement sanctions against listed Russian and Belarussian oligarchs, has stepped up its action at international level. It will work alongside the newly established 'Russian Elites, Proxies, and Oligarchs (REPO)' Task Force, under which the EU operates together with the G7 countries, as well as Australia.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 15 March Following up on the informal meeting of the EU heads of state and government on 10-11 March, the Council decided to impose a fourth package of economic and individual sanctions in respect of Russia’s military aggression against Ukraine. These sanctions will further contribute to ramping up economic pressure on the Kremlin and cripple its ability to finance its invasion of Ukraine.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 11 March The Commission disbursed €300 million in emergency Macro-Financial Assistance to Ukraine. This is the initial part of a first €600 million instalment under Ukraine's new €1.2 billion emergency MFA programme. The programme represents a concrete demonstration of the EU's unwavering support for Ukraine.

<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 9 March The Council decided to impose further targeted sanctions in view of the situation in Ukraine and in response to Belarus's involvement in the aggression. They include restrictive measures on an additional 160 individuals. Together with the sectoral measures targeting Belarus and Russia also adopted by the Council, these new listings close loopholes and consolidate existing measures as agreed by the EU to respond to Russia’s military aggression against Ukraine.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 8 March The Commission outlined the very substantial EU support for people fleeing war in Ukraine, as well as the EU countries receiving them. European solidarity in action is helping people through direct humanitarian aid, emergency civil protection assistance, support at the border, as well as a clear legal status allowing those fleeing the war to receive immediate protection in the EU.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 8 March The Commission adopted a proposal for Cohesion's Action for Refugees in Europe allowing Member States and regions to provide emergency support to people fleeing from Russia's invasion of Ukraine.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 4 March The Commission has suspended cooperation with Russian entities in research, science and innovation. The Commission will not conclude any new contracts nor any new agreements with Russian organisations under the Horizon Europe programme. Similarly, the Commission has suspended cooperation with Russia and its ally Belarus in the European Neighbourhood Instrument cross-border cooperation programmes as well as in the Interreg Baltic Sea region programme.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 2 March Following the announcement by Commission President Ursula von der Leyen, the Council of the EU decided to suspend the distribution of Russian state-owned disinformation outlets Russia Today and Sputnik across the EU. The sanctions cover all means for transmission and distribution, such as via cable, satellite, IPTV, platforms, websites and apps. All relevant licences, authorisations and distribution arrangements are suspended. These measures are covering all EU Member States and are directly applicable immediately.

<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 2 March The Commission proposed to activate the Temporary Protection Directive to offer quick and effective assistance to people fleeing the war in Ukraine. Under this proposal, those fleeing the war will be granted temporary protection in the EU, meaning that they will be given a residence permit, and they will have access to education and to the labour market.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 2 March The EU agreed to exclude key Russian banks from the SWIFT system, the world's dominant financial messaging system. This measure will stop these banks from conducting their financial transactions worldwide in a fast and efficient manner. Today's decision has been closely coordinated with the EU's international partners, such as the United States and the United Kingdom.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 28 February The Commission announced an additional €90 million for emergency aid programmes to help civilians affected by the war in Ukraine, as part of an urgent aid appeal by the United Nations. The funding will help people inside Ukraine and in Moldova.

The Commission is also coordinating the delivery of material assistance via the EU Civil Protection Mechanism to Ukraine, currently with offers from 20 Member States, which includes 8 million essential medical care items and civil protection support.

Moldova has activated the mechanism to support Ukrainians arriving in their country. Austria, France and the Netherlands have already offered emergency support such as shelter items and medical assistance to Moldova.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 27 February The Commission proposed additional support measures for Ukraine and sanctions against Russia, including:

financing the purchase and delivery of weapons and other equipment to Ukraine shutting down EU airspace for all Russian-owned, Russian registered or Russian-controlled aircraft [in force since 28 February] banning EU the state-owned media outlets Russia Today and Sputnik in the EU, as well as their subsidiaries [in force since 2 March]

The Commission also proposed a new package against the Lukashenko regime in Belarus, targeting the country’s most important sectors, restricting exports of dual-use goods and sanctioning those Belarusians helping the Russian war effort.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 26 February In coordination with France, Germany, Italy, Canada, the UK and the US, the Commission proposed a new set of measures in reaction to Russia’s aggression on Ukraine. These measures aim to:

exclude important Russian banks from the SWIFT system ban the transactions of Russia's central bank and freeze all its assets [in force since 28 February] target the assets of Russian oligarchs [in force since 28 February]

<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 25 February Following up on the conclusions of the European Council on 24 February, the Council adopted a package of individual and economic measures built on five pillars:

financial sector sanctions that will cut Russia's access to the most important capital markets, targeting 70% of the Russian banking market, but also key state-owned companies, including the field of defence energy sector sanctions that will prohibit the sale, supply, transfer or export to Russia of specific goods and technologies in oil refining, and will introduce restrictions on the provision of related services transport sector sanctions that will ban the sale of all aircraft, spare parts and equipment to Russian airlines. This will degrade the key sector of Russia's economy and the country's connectivity.
technology sector sanctions imposing further restrictions on exports of dual-use goods and technology, as well as restrictions on exports of certain goods and technology which might contribute to Russia’s technological enhancement of its defence and security sector.

visa policy sanctions that mean diplomats and related groups, and business people will no longer have privileged access to the EU.

<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 24 February In the extraordinary meeting of the European Council, EU leaders condemned in the strongest possible terms the Russian Federation’s unprovoked and unjustified military aggression against Ukraine. They agreed on further restrictive measures that will impose massive and severe consequences on Russia for its action, in close coordination with EU’s partners and allies.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 24 February President of the Commission Ursula von der Leyen strongly condemned Russia's aggression against Ukraine. She called on Russia to immediately stop the violence and to withdraw its troops from Ukraine's territory, reiterating the EU’s full support for Ukraine and its people. She presented to European leaders for approval a package of massive sanctions targeting strategic sectors of the Russian economy by blocking their access to technologies and markets.
<li class="timeline__list__item hidden"> 23 February In response to Russia recognising the non-government controlled areas of the Donetsk and Luhansk oblasts of Ukraine and its decision to send troops into the region, the EU adopted a package of sanctions. These sanctions target:

individuals and entities who played a role in undermining or threatening the territorial integrity and independence of Ukraine economic relations between the two non-government controlled regions and the EU, to ensure that those responsible clearly feel the economic consequences of their illegal and aggressive actions the ability of the Russian state and government to access the EU’s capital and financial markets and services, to limit the financing of escalatory and aggressive policies

Russia’s invasion of Ukraine has shifted priorities and frayed alliances in the EU. It has also created winners and losers in Brussels.
It has been exactly three months since Russian President Vladimir Putin invaded Ukraine, triggering courageous and unexpectedly successful resistance from the Ukrainian people. Putin’s war has shaken things up in Brussels, with both the EU institutions and the member-states responding nimbly. But now the EU’s unity is starting to wear thin.
The war has had a massive impact on four policy areas: energy, EU enlargement, the economy, and defence and security. But it has had a surprisingly limited effect effect on two difficult files: rule of law and migration. Hitherto unbreakable friendships, such as Hungary and Poland's, have become strained; and for the first time in more than a decade, EU countries cannot look to Germany for leadership. The German president of the European Commission, however, is having a comparatively good war.

The war has had a massive impact on energy, enlargement, the economy, and defence and security, but a limited effect on rule of law and migration.
Tweet this
Of the four challenges facing the EU, energy is the most urgent, while enlargement is probably the trickiest. The economic consequences of the war for Europe, including rapidly rising costs of living, while dire, in some ways echo problems that the EU has dealt with before – particularly during its rather successful management of the economic fall-out of the COVID-19 pandemic. The supply of weapons to Ukraine has been an extraordinary tour de force for the EU, but did not come out of the blue: the Union had been preparing for a situation where it might want to do more than its usual military assistance measures. The European Peace Facility, a little known pot of money that allows the EU to supply weapons to other countries at a short notice, has been operational since July 2021.
Energy
The question of how to rapidly extricate Europe from its dependence on Russian oil and gas is as pressing as it is complicated: since the war began, Europe has paid more than €58 billion to Russia for oil and gas. Because of soaring energy prices, the EU is paying a premium of around 54 per cent for Russian fossil fuels in comparison to 2021. Revenues from fossil fuels account for a significant chunk of Russia’s public budget (40 per cent at 2021 prices), so EU payments for oil and gas are not only helping Putin to fund his war but also offsetting some of the impact of the current economic sanctions. Additionally, Putin has asked buyers to pay for gas in roubles, which helps to prop up Russia’s currency. EU countries are currently negotiating a sixth package of sanctions which should include oil, but not gas. This is a mistake. As the CER and others have argued, there is no easy way out of the Russian energy conundrum, but the EU should accelerate its phase-out of all fossil fuel imports from Russia as soon as possible. While a full embargo may be too much too soon for several member-states, the EU could consider imposing import tariffs on Russian gas. Of the challenges facing the EU, energy is the most urgent, while enlargement is probably the trickiest. Tweet this In the meantime, even without new energy sanctions, the war in Ukraine has exacerbated pandemic-related supply chain bottlenecks and increased energy prices. Both contribute to inflation and rising costs of living in Europe. Higher prices for oil and gas disproportionately affect poorer households (which spend a larger part of their income on heating, for example) and those living in rural areas (who have little access to public transport and thus rely on cars). Europeans who were already wary of the Union’s plans to fight climate change are now being told they have to give up their fossil-fuelled cars and turn to electric vehicles quicker than expected. The response of EU leaders has been understandable but wrong: to counter energy price spikes, many governments have effectively subsidised the use of fossil fuels by cutting energy taxes, as opposed to using this opportunity to support consumers in transitioning away from them. This is what European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen is trying to do with her new ‘REPower EU’ plan to reduce the EU’s energy dependency and boost the use of climate-friendly energy sources. EU leaders should follow the Commission’s lead, focusing on making the use of green energy more affordable and easily accessible for all Europeans, instead of spending money to prop up fossil fuels. Enlargement On April 8th, von der Leyen surprised officials in Brussels and EU capitals by handing over an EU membership questionnaire to Ukraine’s President Volodymyr Zelenskyy in Kyiv. The questionnaire is a technical document to clarify the inner workings of the applicant country. The Commission uses the document to inform its advice on whether the EU should open accession talks. Filling out the questionnaire is often a long and tedious process. War-torn Kyiv, however, managed to deliver its answers within ten days, sparking suspicion that the European Commission may have drafted at least part of the responses to speed up the process. Von der Leyen wants to convince member-states to grant candidate status to Ukraine at their next summit in June. The Commission’s pressure on EU governments is working. Many think that Ukraine is not ready to join the EU yet, but they know the EU cannot afford to keep it in the waiting room for years, as it has done with other candidates like North Macedonia. That is why Emmanuel Macron has come up with the idea of a ‘European political community’, which would bring together the EU and like-minded countries such as Ukraine, Moldova and Georgia, and also the UK. Macron’s efforts to reconcile the EU’s goodwill towards Ukraine with the harsh reality of EU accession are laudable, but he has so far offered little explanation of how such a political community would work. A good place to start would be former MEP Andrew Duff’s idea of affiliated membership, which would upgrade current agreements like the ones the EU has with Ukraine, the UK and Switzerland for example, by offering participation in more EU policies in exchange for a commitment to respect EU values and the EU’s foreign policy positions. Migration and the rule of law

The need to find creative answers to Ukraine’s membership application has revived an enduring debate about a ‘multi-speed’ Europe both for the outer and inner circles of the EU. The Brussels institutions have been trying to find ways to deal with Poland and Hungary’s breaches of EU values and disregard for ECJ rulings. Before Putin’s invasion, the EU was mostly preoccupied with the Polish government’s attacks on the independence of the judiciary and its refusal to abide by EU judicial decisions. But Poland’s commendable efforts to assist Ukraine and its role at the forefront of the EU’s response to the invasion have softened relations between Brussels and Warsaw (despite Poland’s continuing breaches of EU law and values). Hungary’s Viktor Orbán, on the other hand, is being difficult – especially since he won re-election in a landslide victory in April. On April 5th, the European Commission triggered its new ‘rule of law conditionality mechanism’ against Hungary (a law that allows the EU to suspend funding to a member-state if it suspects the money is being used to breach the rule of law). Budapest is now blocking the EU's sixth package of sanctions against Russia, allegedly because it cannot find ways to disentangle itself from Russian oil fast enough. Critics of the EU’s voting rules on foreign policy – which generally require unanimity among all EU member-states and can therefore be vetoed by any single country – are getting louder in the face of Orbán’s antics. Orbán’s cosiness with Putin and his current refusal to toe the EU’s line on Russia is dividing the ‘Visegrad’ group (Hungary, Poland, Slovakia and the Czech Republic). Some EU officials hope that this new animosity will help break the gridlock over Article 7 procedures – which allows for the voting rights of a member-state to be suspended in the event of a serious and persistent breach of EU values. Such a penalty requires the unanimous vote of all other member-states. The EU institutions have launched Article 7 procedures against both Hungary and Poland, but these have been blocked because of the alliance between Budapest and Warsaw. Neither is likely to change tack despite their falling out over relations with Russia: both could end up being penalised if one of them unblocks the process. The European Commission is walking a fine line here. On the one hand, both Poland and Hungary will need financial support to deal with the consequences of Putin’s invasion. On the other hand, problems with corruption and the rule of law in both countries are far from being resolved. The Commission is still withholding money from the recovery fund for Poland, because of doubts over Warsaw’s willingness to properly audit how the money is spent. While the EU is channelling money to Poland so that it can deal with the flow of Ukrainian refugees, it is becoming clearer that more will be needed as the war rages on. Hungary says it will need €15-18 billion to modernise the country’s energy infrastructure if it is to support oil sanctions. If the EU releases money to Hungary and Poland, it should insist on attaching it to rule of law requirements, including regular audits on how and where the money is spent and stringent public procurement procedures. EU leaders have to prepare for the long haul and be willing to pull out all the stops in preserving their unity. Tweet this Putin’s aggression is unlikely to solve disagreements over what EU migration policies should look like. If anything, it may actually make them more difficult. Fears of a looming food crisis in Africa are mounting after Russia seized or blockaded Ukraine’s main ports in the Black Sea. Russia and Ukraine together supply around 30 per cent of the world’s wheat, but some parts of the world are more exposed to disruptions of supply than others. North Africa will be particularly hit if the war continues. Food scarcity will probably drive people out of their countries. The initial unity that was evident when the EU pushed through a law to protect Ukrainian refugees is unlikely to be repeated when it comes to unblocking some of the trickier migration-related dossiers, like whether and how to distribute asylum seekers within the bloc and how to deal with irregular migrants, particularly if migrant flows increase. Winners and losers beyond the battlefield Putin’s invasion has created winners and losers in Brussels. Poland has garnered significant goodwill and is likely to receive its share of the EU’s post-pandemic recovery money. Ursula von der Leyen’s particular leadership style – centralised and focused on the big files to the detriment of more technical dossiers – is suitable for steering a sometimes incohesive organisation like the EU through a war. Macron is another obvious winner: with German Chancellor Olaf Scholz mostly out of the picture and Britain out of the club, he has emerged as the EU’s most influential leader. His ideas may not always be workable, but at least he is daring enough to put them on the table. Germany’s Scholz, in comparison, has taken a big reputational hit in the past few weeks. The hesitations and wobbles with which the German government has faced both a gas embargo and the supply of weapons supply to Ukraine have eroded Berlin’s political capital. Attacks have come from both eastern European countries, which accuse Germany of having been naive and complacent in its dealings with Putin; and southern countries, which are annoyed that Berlin, only too happy to have lectured them on austerity during the euro crisis, finds it so hard to accept that a major security crisis should result in significant costs to its economy. Hungary, already isolated, is further alienating partners in Europe and beyond. Those who hoped that Putin’s invasion would change voters’ minds about illiberal leaders like Viktor Orbán turned out to be wrong. Orbán has moved from being a mere annoyance to a serious problem without an easy solution. A third, a perhaps less obvious loser, is the EU's Green Deal. The need to phase out Russian gas much faster than foreseen has put a spanner in the works of the Union's 'Fit for 55' plan to reduce greenhouse emissions. Because many countries relied on gas as a transitional energy source while phasing out other, more polluting ones, like oil and coal, around a third of member-states are now pushing for a delay of the plan, according to senior diplomats. Overall, the EU is holding up surprisingly well, three months into Putin's war. It has managed to swiftly agree on sanctions, channelled money and weapons to Ukraine and welcomed large numbers of those fleeing Putin's brutal aggression. EU leaders have taken brave decisions although much remains to be done, especially on energy. Crucially, neither the EU nor its allies have been able to stop Putin yet. The longer the war continues, the greater the strains on European unity will be. EU leaders have to prepare for the long haul and be willing to pull out all the stops in preserving their unity. The biggest beneficiary of division would be Putin. Camino Mortera-Martinez is head of the Brussels office at the Centre for European Reform.

WASHINGTON – Mr. President, I rise this afternoon to make sure that the plight of Russian leader Vladimir Kara-Murza is not forgotten.

That the outrageous imprisonment of Vladimir Kara-Murza by the Russian dictator Vladimir Putin is not forgotten.

In Russia’s war on Ukraine, an unprovoked attack, unspeakable atrocities, and genocidal intent is juxtaposed against a valiant defense of hearth and home, a spirit of national unity, and grassroots mobilization. Not since the 1930s has a foreign war between a larger aggressor and a smaller but tenacious underdog so captivated the imagination of freedom-loving people.

Answering the call of conscience, many American combat veterans are now fighting alongside Ukrainian servicemembers, applying their experience in combined arms maneuver and decentralized command to help Ukraine win the war.

<h3 id="title-1">General information</h3>
<h4>Bulgaria and the European Union’s Common Visa Policy</h4>
Since 1 January 2007 the Republic of Bulgaria has been applying the European Union’s Common Visa Policy, subject to the terms of the Accession Treaty.

<h4>Bulgaria and the Schengen Area</h4>
Joining the Schengen area is a key priority of our country. The Bulgarian government is highly committed to fulfilling one of the key national priorities – Bulgaria’s accession to the Schengen area. A well-functioning coordination between ministries and institutions has been established to this end on political and expert level.
The efforts in the preparation process have been focused on meeting the high Schengen standards and securing reliable external borders.
In order to meet the Schengen criteria Bulgaria undertook all necessary actions in view of harmonizing immediately the national to the European law, updating our international base of treaties, providing the relevant state-of-the-art technical equipment and infrastructure and enhancing the administrative capacity whereby our country uses the best practice of the EU member states.
Currently Bulgaria issues national visas only. Those visas do not give their holders the right to enter the Schengen area.
<h4>Visa-free regime for holders of Schengen visas for a stay of up to 90 days</h4>
On 25 January 2012 the Council of Ministers of the Republic of Bulgaria adopted a decision according to which by the date of Bulgaria’s accession to the Schengen area, our country will unilaterally apply a visa-free system for holders of valid Schengen visas. They will have the right to enter and reside in the Republic of Bulgaria for a period of no more than three months in any six-month period from the date of the first entry, without needing to have a Bulgarian short-stay visa. The decision entered into force on 31.01.2012.

SOFIA, Bulgaria
 The war between Ukraine and Russia is not expected to spread to Bulgaria, but the biggest risk for the Bulgarian people is the one surrounding the safety of Ukrainian nuclear power plants, Bulgaria’s prime minister said Monday. Kiril Petkov evaluated the developments in Ukraine while speaking to private television channel bTV and said although there was not a risk of the war spreading to Bulgarian soil, last week’s fire at the Zaporizhzhia nuclear power plant in Ukraine was worrisome. Bulgaria is taking all essential measures and will maintain a massive amount of wheat stocks in order to prevent price hikes in bread products, said Petkov, noting the country would have wheat stocks that would suffice at least until 2023. The Bulgarian state will also intervene in fuel and wheat prices to stop possible hikes when necessary, he said. Petkov also commented on military aid to Ukraine, saying a few MiG-type Russian-made warplanes in the hands of the country's air force would not be included in the military-logistical aid Bulgaria could provide. He said Bulgaria’s inventory of capable planes was already few and it was out of the question for it to hand them over to any other country at this time. Bulgaria's air fleet consists of 15 MiG-29s, 12 MiG-29As and three MiG fighter jets used for training purposes. However, various evaluations published by news outlets suggest these aircraft are at the end of their technological lifespan and only eight to nine of them are useable. The country has an army of 30,000 personnel, all of whom are professionals, and the armed forces cannot fill personnel vacancies due to a lack of candidates. Russia's war on Ukraine, which began on Feb. 24, has drawn international condemnation, led to financial sanctions on Moscow, and spurred an exodus of global firms from Russia.
 At least 406 civilians have been killed and 801 others injured in Ukraine since the beginning of the war, according to UN figures. But the international body has maintained that conditions on the ground have made it "difficult to verify" the true number of civilian casualties.
 More than 1.7 million people have also fled to neighboring countries, the UN Refugee Agency said. *Writing by Ali Murat Alhas

Meeting Ukraine’s ambition for genuine decentralisation and local self-government reforms, the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe pursues its co-operation on the ground with the project "Strengthening democracy and building trust at local level in Ukraine". The aim is to provide a framework for regular consultation and dialogue between local authorities, their national associations, and central government, while supporting local elected representatives in their efforts to promote ethical decision making and more citizen-oriented, inclusive, responsive and transparent local governance.

This project follows on the Roadmap agreed between the Congress and the Ukrainian authorities in May 2015 for the implementation of Recommendation 348 (2013) on Local and regional democracy in Ukraine. The project builds upon the results of Congress co-operation activities carried out in Ukraine since 2014 and is based on the needs and recommendations voiced by relevant stakeholders and beneficiaries during the implementation of the project "Promoting local democracy in Ukraine" (2015-2017).
To date, over 220 mayors, 300 local councillors and 350 young local leaders representing all regions of Ukraine have benefited from the Congress activities in the field. Partnerships with national associations of local and regional authorities have also been reinforced, so as to accompany the change and to scale up the results achieved over the past years.

Project summary
</h4>

The project "Strengthening democracy and building trust at local level in Ukraine" aims to improve the quality of local democracy in Ukraine by strengthening institutional frameworks and by supporting local authorities and their national associations in their efforts to promote ethical decision-making and more citizen-oriented, inclusive, responsive and transparent local governance.

The project is implemented by the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities as part of the Council of Europe Action Plan for Ukraine 2018-2021, and in line with the principles enshrined in the European Charter of Local Self-Government (ETS No. 122) and its Additional Protocol on the right to participate in the affairs of a local authority (CETS No. 207).
